STEPHEN McINTYRE

Full many a man who now doth beat the printer
Will waste his breath upon the heated air,
And vainly sigh for cooling breeze of winter,
When he is punished for his sins down there

The fellow who can whistle, he is built on nature's plan,
And he cheers his toiling fellow-men along;
There is no room for pessimists, but give to us the man
Who can whistle w' en the world is going wrong
